

SALES ANNOUNCED FOR THE HOME.

Check for That Sum Sent to Lord Mayor Tallon, of Dublin, to Pay the Mortgage on the Estate.

Richard Croker Writes to the Noted Irishman, Congratulating Him on the Success of His Mission.

"Tell Him His Name Will Be Remembered So Long as the Irish Race Survives," Responds the Lord Mayor.

Tammany Hall has cleared the mortgage on the Charles Stewart Parnell home, County Wicklow, Ireland, by handing to Lord Mayor Daniel Tallon, of Dublin, and John E. Redmond, M. P., a draft for $15,000. This draft was placed in the custody of the Lord Mayor, at the Hoffman House last night by Thomas F. Smith, private secretary to Richard Croker. It was numbered 3324, and read thus:

N. M. Rothschild & Sons, New York, Nov. 23, 1899. Pay this original check (duplicate unpaid) to the order of Daniel Tallon and John E. Redmond, the sum of $15,000.

AUGUST BELMONT & CO.

This note from Richard Croker accompanied the draft:

Tammany Hall, Nov. 23, 1899. To the Hon. Daniel Tallon, Lord Mayor of Dublin, and the Hon. John E. Redmond, M. P.

Gentlemen—I have the honor, in behalf of Tammany Hall, to enclose herewith a draft for three thousand pounds for the purpose of clearing the entire mortgage now resting upon the Charles Stewart Parnell estate. Our original intention was to raise two thousand pounds, but upon consideration of the mortgage, it was deemed necessary to increase the sum to three thousand pounds. I am sure that you will be glad to see this note, and that you will be glad to see the mortgage cleared.

The Lord Mayor was much touched by the contribution. In accepting it he said: "I am simply, my dear Mr. Croker, your Mr. Smith, who convey to Mr. Croker my most warm thanks, and the thanks of the citizens of Dublin, and not only of Dublin, but of the Irish nation, for the magnificent gift presented."

The Estate Is Saved.

"Tell Mr. Croker, for me, in behalf of the Irish people, that he has saved the Parnell estate. Tell him that his name will be remembered so long as the Irish race survives."

"I am told he is going to Europe in a short time and will ask you in my name to ascertain what time he will get to Dublin. I promise Mr. Croker that he shall not only be tendered the freedom of that city, but of the whole Irish nation. He is, I think, the idol of the Irish race, and I am sure that if he comes to Dublin he will get a welcome that will astonish him. Will you tell him that?"

Mr. Smith replied that he did not know whether Mr. Croker would be able to visit Dublin, but he would certainly convey the Lord Mayor's message. Mr. Redmond, Edward O'Flaherty, Henry G. Bannon, Frederick J. Kennedy, C. A. Conboy, J. A. McCullough, C. F. Phillips and others present also sent their expressions of gratitude to Mr. Croker.

Only Asked for $10,000.

"We only asked for $10,000," said the Lord Mayor afterward, "but Mr. Croker and the great political organization of which he is chief give us $5,000 more. I understand this has been subscribed in small sums throughout the city. It is a grand gift, and I can assure Mr. Croker that his name will be placed in letters of bronze upon the Parnell monument if I have anything to say about it."

The Lord Mayor cabled to Dublin last night a message of congratulation. Parnell home had been saved to the family by the generosity of Mr. Croker and other Americans. He also sent word that he would be home in a few days with the cash with which to lift the mortgage.

BONDS ALLOWED BY COUNCIL.

Work on the Education Hall Will Now Be Paid For.

The Municipal Council at an adjourned meeting yesterday passed a resolution authorizing the Comptroller to issue bonds for $245,300 to pay for work done on the new hall of the Board of Education.

A resolution was passed opposing the contracts for preliminary work on the proposed bridges across the East River.

Councilman Francisco defeated a resolution to authorize a bond issue of $153,000 for heating the Board of Education hall by objecting that the contract had been let before the money was provided.

Read of a Suicide and Became One.

Springfield, Mass., Nov. 22.—Miss Mary Smith, thirty-nine years of age, daughter of John P. Smith, market agent, committed suicide by hanging herself in this city this morning. She was dependent because of poor health, and an account to the newspaper of the suicide was given by Monday induced her to take her life in the same manner.
